Profile

Established in the year 1971, we, "C. Abhaykumar & Co." are a prominent trader and distributor of optimum quality range of Laboratory and Scientific Instruments. Our products find high demand in the market for features such as optimum performance, longer functional life, reliability, cost-effectiveness and dimensional stability. Owing to these quality features, our products find extensive usage in numerous research facilities. Our organization started off as importers for filter papers, silica ware and various other instruments. Slowly, we ventured into marketing indigenous products to provide total laboratory solution. Subsequently, we ended up in stocking and selling imported analytical instruments and has ever since been a prime company in this field. We have 40 years of experience in delivering scientific instruments and have an excellent reputation in the market. Prompt and timely after sales service is the key forte of our organization.
